About the Vendor Fair

This exciting event is an opportunity for 20-25 high-tech small businesses to exhibit their products, services and capabilities to the JPL purchasing and technical community. Selected participants will demonstrate how their products and services can benefit current and future NASA/JPL missions, research and development, and on-lab institutional support and operations efforts.

Exhibitors Can Expect to:

- Exhibit products and services to JPL science and technology staff, chief scientists, and procurement representatives
- Market to and network with Prime contractor representatives
- Discuss future NASA/JPL subcontracting opportunities with Project and Program managers
- Gain access to valuable JPL key contact information and establish a relationship with the Supplier Diversity Program Office
